Mobility charity A Leg To Stand On has entered into a partnership with Brooklyn, NY-based Declared Goods and FUGA Distribution to release music via Apple Music, Spotify, Bandcamp, amongst others. The partnership comes only months after ALTSO announced they would be starting their own record label to raise awareness for its mission.

The charity - and their music label, A Leg To Stand On Music - raise funds to provide critical and life-changing mobility treatments to children in emerging market countries. This week also marked a milestone for the organization who celebrated their 20,000th child treated since programs began in 2002. By providing free, high-quality prosthetic limbs, orthotic braces, and appropriately fitted wheelchairs to ALTSO's CoolKids, the charity offers not only mobility to each of its beneficiaries, but the ability to independently attend school each day, in areas where public transportation is absent or unaffordable, providing them access to education, self-esteem, and tools to live self-sufficiently.

ALTSO's Rocktoberfest 2021 will be a global live-stream event on Thursday, October 21st at 7pm EST. Free registration is now open and those interested in joining are encouraged to register to ensure they stay up to date on event details, announcements, and special promotions offered by the charity and their Rocktoberfest partners.

"Cboe Global Markets has been a proud sponsor of ALTSO's Rocktoberfest for a decade, and we are pleased to support ALTSO in their mission to provide high-quality wheelchairs, prosthetic limbs and orthotic braces to children with limb disabilities again this year. We are committed to being an active participant in our global communities, contributing our time and resources to organizations that strive to empower and uplift those in need,” says Sharon Stanciel, Senior Director, Political and Civic Affairs at Cboe Global Markets.

Alongside Cboe Global Markets, additional event sponsors include Paysafe, The OCC, Bitstamp, CME Group, Jacobs Asset Management, Wells Fargo, Gate39 Media, Back In The Game Therapy, Sandler Capital, Barchart, Quanteam North America, Wilshire Phoenix, ABN Amro Clearing, Belvedere Trading LLC, Eurex, and more.
